GREENS GET COUNCIL TO COMMIT TO ZERO CARBON BUILDINGS:

Green councillors have pushed Oxford City Council to commit to ensuring all publicly owned buildings are carbon neutral by 2030. Green councillor Dick Wolff said: "This motion ensures that the Council does not mislead or provide room for developers to 'cut corners' on claims around climate change."

COWLEY ROAD TESCO TO CLOSE FOR 30 WEEKS:

Green councillors and candidates Dick Wolff, Chris Jarvis and Craig Simmons have written to Cowley Road's Tesco store over plans to close for 30 weeks during redevelopment. Chris Jarvis said: "To support the vulnerable and people who are shielding during lockdown, Tesco should increase its online deliveries. For those who can get out, this is also an opportunity to support East Oxford's small and local shops."

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

Your local Green Councillors are here to help during these challenging times.

Green Party candidate Chris Jarvis said, "We are fortunate in Oxford that support is available locally for residents and businesses facing difficulties during the coronavirus pandemic. However, it can be difficult to know what is available and the best way to access support."

Scan the QR code below to let us know how we can help you and any thoughts you have on how we can improve East Oxford.

In order to comply with current covid guidance, this leaflet was delivered by paid deliverers rather than by our usual Oxford Green Party volunteers.
