

ABOUT KATHERINE FOXHALL

Katherine is a committed and active local advocate. She has fifteen years professional experience as a historian, university lecturer, public speaker and policy researcher.

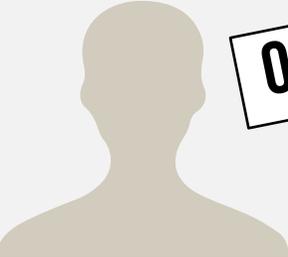

She grew up in rural Devon and now lives in Uffington with her family. She runs a toddler group, volunteers for the Uffington COVID-19 support group, and is Secretary of the local Community Garden.

“I will work hard for Shrivenham and surrounding villages. I have the skills and understanding to speak up for residents on the issues that matter most to them.”

Katherine will be a strong, independent Green voice, working with other councillors to fight budget cuts, protect our environment, help the COVID-19 recovery, and hold the Council to account.

KATHERINE WILL WORK HARD FOR YOU

A STRONG LOCAL VOICE TO SPEAK UP FOR THE ISSUES THAT MATTER TO RESIDENTS

PEOPLE

- ✓ better services and increased pay in health and social care
- ✓ permanently well-funded local public health teams
- ✓ extra schools funding – especially for children who need more help

PLACE

- ✓ safe, joined-up routes for pedestrians and cyclists
- ✓ reinstate vital services such as buses and mobile libraries
- ✓ protect green and natural spaces, both rural and urban
- ✓ better responses to issues such as streetlighting, flooding and potholes

FUTURE

- ✓ climate and environment at the heart of council plans and decisions
- ✓ Well-insulated and energy-efficient homes
- ✓ Gigabit-ready broadband for everyone

“I will speak up for this area, putting residents’ needs at the heart of the decisions that affect all of our lives.”

Katherine

I WILL:

- ✓ Work hard all year round;
- ✓ Listen to residents;
- ✓ Be visible and responsive;
- ✓ Keep you informed.
